

Spotlight on the Arts 2011

a program of California Lawyers for the Arts

Paid Summer Internships and Enrichment Workshops on Arts, Job Skills, Career Exploration and more!

- Internships at arts organizations, such as museums, theaters, cultural centers
- Enrichment workshops that include interactive exercises in job development skills, financial literacy, college preparation, career exploration, careers in the arts, and a hands-on arts project
- “Backstage” tours of arts facilities
- Free performing arts events

Eligibility

1. Ages 14-17
2. Live in San Francisco
3. Low-income family (priority to SFHA residents)
4. Strong interest in the arts
5. Availability for 20 hours per week for eight weeks in summer 2011
6. No concurrent employment in any other city funded program such as MYEEP.

What young people have said about this program:

“I found my passion and a career for the future”

“I improved my social and communication skills”

“It helped build my confidence”

“I loved this program”

Deadline for application is April 15, 2010.

Applications are accepted now!

For more information and an application, please call Jill Roisen, Program Director, at 415. 775. 7200 x 102 or email her at jill.roisen@calawyersforthearts.org. Our application can also be downloaded from our website at www.calawyersforthearts.org/Community_Development. Applications may be faxed to 415. 775. 1143, emailed to the address above or mailed to Spotlight on the Arts, California Lawyers for the Arts, Fort Mason Center, C-225, San Francisco, CA 94123